

Entropy Christmas Toy Guide for Boys

Our favourite selections for boys this year are revealed below. This includes vehicles, construction elements, train sets, role play toys, puppets and science kits.

1. Haba Ball Track Marble Run: This versatile wooden marble run system represents the ultimate in play value. Creative, constructive, and great fun. $189.

2. Janod Giant Rocket: Use this giant wooden rocket as a play item or puzzle; plus it makes an absolutely stunning room decoration. $99.95.

3. Edtoy Transformable Vehicles: Pull these very clever wooden vehicles apart to transform them into lots of different and exciting modes of transport. From $24.95.

4. Battat Spinaroos: Chunky, soft bristle blocks are a full of creative fun. The modern colours, personalities and twisty elements add a funky twist to this timeless toy. $99.95.

5. Le Toy Van Pirate Ship: Get set for an adventure on the high seas with this award-winning pirate ship from Le Toy Van. $99.95.

6. Seedling Good things for Boys: A package containing a plethora of playthings. $34.95.

7. Folkmanis Puppets: A gift of one of these realistic puppets encourages imaginative, open-ended play. Even big boys think these puppets are cool. From $24.95.

8. 4M Science Kits: This range of kits is well-suited to children from around eight years of age. They encourage problem solving and lateral thinking. $24.95.

9. Wooden Play Castle: It's a world of medieval role play fun with these castles that feature turrets, drawbridges and more. From $135.

10. Brio Train Set: One of the great things about Brio train sets is the fact they're not based on characters. This means they do not date and can be passed on to other family members. From $34.95.
